

RICHARD CASH, ED.D.

ENGAGING LEARNERS PRESENTER

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Cash began his teaching career in a magnet school for gifted children where he created learning spaces that were rich in artistry, combining his theatrical background with highly effective educational practices. He served as the Administrator of Gifted Programs in Rochester, Minnesota, and the Director of Gifted Programs for the Bloomington Public schools in Minnesota. Richard has given hundreds of workshops, presentations and staff development sessions throughout the United States, Europe, Asia and the Middle East. He offers research-based strategies and techniques that are proven to increase student achievement. Educators commend his talent for working with teachers to develop engaging and enriching learning environments that can improve student learning.

Richard's greatest passion is helping teachers recognize the various talents all children possess and create learning experiences to allow those talents to flourish.

Richard is author of Differentiation for Gifted Learners - Going Beyond the Basics (co-authored with Diane Heacox, Ed.D.) and Advancing Differentiation: Thinking and Learning for the 21st Century (2010 AEP Distinguished Achievement Award Finalist).
